

Suggested Materials List for Radiant Oils

Paint

We will be working in transparent oils. My palette contains the following:

Permanent Alizarin Crimson (Daniel Smith)
Permanent Orange (Daniel Smith)
Quinacridone Rose (Daniel Smith/ M Graham))
Quinacridone Gold (Daniel Smith)
Quinacridone Red (Daniel Smith)
Quinacridone Burnt Orange (Daniel Smith)
Transparent Yellow (Winsor & Newton)
Indian Yellow (Rembrandt)
Ultramarine Blue (green shade)
Pthalo Blue (Daniel Smith)
Sap Green (Sennelier)

Brushes: Bring what you have. I will be using:

Soft Red Sable flat brushes size ¼” and ½”

Fritch Scrubbers sizes 6, 12 and 16

Red Sable (or similar) round size 1 (for detail)

Sable filberts 2, 4, 6, 8, 12 (suggested sizes)

Oval Round mini mops sizes 6 & 10 for blending (or your preferred blending tools)

Soft Ox hair Moon mop ¾” (or other preferred SOFT blending brush)

(Note you if you do not have these type brushes you may wish to check out Scharff brushes

<http://artbrush.com/shop/home.php> or wait until the first class and we will discuss placing a group order to save shipping, etc.)

Other Suggested Supplies

At least FOUR 5X7 or 6X8 canvas panels. (I have a few available for purchase for $1.50 each to the first four students who speak up for them).

Later we will need 8X10's and/or any size you wish.

transfer paper

Murphy's OIL soap and/or Masters brush cleaner to clean brushes a the end of the day

Painting Board (if you wish to affix your small panels to a larger surface

Odorless Mineral Spirits (or Gamsol)

WALNUT ALKYD (M Graham makes this).

Other supplies you need to buy/bring to class:

9 x 12 disposable waxed palette (make sure it is for OILS) or a palette you can easily clean.

Palette knife for mixing background paint, I like small bent handle ones

1 roll shop towels, they do not shed lint buy at Lowe's, Home Depot/cosco/automotive shops

Pastel pencil or other drawing tool (charcoal etc) 1 kneaded Eraser

1 box of wax paper to cover painting areas and an old towel (or a oilcloth type table cloth)

BABY WIPES -for clean hands and clean up (cheap brands are good)

PLEASE NOTE: UPCOUNTRY FINE ART IN MAKAWAO is an excellent place to begin! Check them out for your supplies right here on island!
